RULES & REGULATIONS

FAIR WILL OPERATE ON EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME

SPECIAL NOTICE

1. Open Classes of Livestock, Agriculture and Horticultural Products are open to the world. 4-H Club exhibitors may exhibit their 4-H livestock in open classes but must pay the stall or pen rent for such open exhibit and make entry in accordance with open class rules.
2. The Board reserves the right to postpone the time of exhibition of any animal or article when in their judgement the weather will not permit a fair trial of merit.
3. Any open call premium not called for by the first of November of 2025 will be considered as forfeited to the association. Premiums not picked up on Sunday, June 22, will be held at the Fair Board Office and will be available by calling 812-883-5440.
4. The Association will use all efforts to protect and preserve articles on exhibition during the Fair, but will not be responsible for losses or accidents.
5. No loading tack during animal species check out. Must sign out with superintendents.
6. All Open Class Livestock exhibits must be owned by the exhibitor 30 days prior to the opening of the Fair. Only exceptions to this will be the Get of Sire and Produce of Dam classes.
7. All articles competing for premiums must possess more than ordinary merit, otherwise no premium will be awarded.
8. Open class and 4-H members will forfeit money earned on animals if they leave before releasing time - except if there are health reasons concerning the animal.

★ SPECIAL NOTICE ★

Open Class Exhibits will be released from their building from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. Sunday, June 22. Premiums paid at this time.

4-H Building – Released Saturday, June 21, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

4-H Livestock animals not selling in the 4-H Livestock Auction will be released Friday, June 20, from 11:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., and Saturday, June 21, from 6:00 to 8:00 a.m.

OPEN CLASS EXHIBIT HALL

Open Class Exhibits are “open to the world.” Exhibitors do not have to be Washington County residents. Age requirements exist only where listed. All projects have three age categories.

Open class entries for the exhibit hall shall be made at the north end of the exhibit hall on Saturday, June 14, 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. for Antiques, Art, Canning, Family Stitchery & Crafts, Photography, Scrapbooking, Community Service Groups, and on Monday, June 16, 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. for Baking, Farm Products, Floriculture, Garden Products and Gourds. No late exhibits will be accepted. All exhibits must remain in the Exhibit Hall until 12:30 p.m., Sunday, June 22, and must be removed by 2:00 that day. Premiums are paid at that time.

All articles competing for premiums must possess more than ordinary merit, otherwise no premium will be awarded. Unless there are two or more exhibitors in each open class exhibit it shall be considered that a first place ribbon will be given and second place money will be paid, unless the exhibit is declared Best of Show. In this case, first place money will be paid. The same person cannot be competing with himself and receive first, second, etc. premium monies, but will receive only the highest premium.

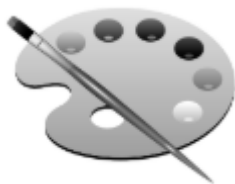

9. Pay off of open class premiums will be made Sunday, June 22, 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. at the open class exhibit hall. Some livestock premiums paid day of show. Check with superintendent. Poultry premiums paid at checkout.
10. Unless there are two or more exhibitors in each open class exhibit it shall be considered that a first place ribbon will be given and second place money will be paid, unless the exhibit is declared Champion. In this case, first place money will be paid. The same person cannot be competing with himself and receive first, second, etc. premium monies, but will receive only the highest premium won.
11. Premiums and awards will be given only on varieties and breeds listed in this book.
12. All manure must be put in the concrete waste bins at the end of the barns.
13. Final pen clean-up for all 4-H livestock will begin after animals are loaded.
14. Situations not covered by the mentioned rules will be at the discretion of the superintendents and their committees.
15. Any person making willful misrepresentation or disobeying the above fair board rules shall forfeit all rights to any premiums.
16. WARNING: Under Indiana law, an equine professional or sponsor is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.
17. No dogs allowed on the fairgrounds except for the dog show and service animals.

ANY ITEM THAT FITS IN A LISTED CLASS MAY NOT SHOW IN “OTHER”.

Situations not covered by the mentioned rules will be at the discretion of the superintendents and their committees. All judges decisions are final.

Open Class Poultry to be judged
Monday, June 16 - 10:30 a.m.

Entries are to be made by Sunday, June 9, by calling Superintendent at 812-755-4130. Birds must be penned by 7:00 p.m., Saturday, June 14, unless other arrangements have been made. Each exhibitor must care for his birds or make arrangements for their care before leaving. Entry Fee $1.00 per bird.

Release time will be the same as all other livestock.

No health certificate required to exhibit. However, all fowl exhibited must provide documents showing that the birds originated from NPIP approved flocks or hatched from eggs originating from NPIP approved flocks. All poultry (chickens, turkeys, water fowl and guineas) not having this documentation must be tested for Pullorum-Typhoid prior to arriving at the fair. All fowl must test negative in order to show at the fair. This is a very quick and easy blood test that is administered and checked by the poultry superintendent.
